Carl DeLeo's career in the fire service spans over 25 years, including 20 years as a full time Firefighter and Company Officer. He has worked as a Fire/Arson Investigator for the past 15 years, 8 of which were as a sworn Peace Officer. Lt. DeLeo was instrumental in the development of the DuPage County, IL Fire Investigation Task Force, which has been recognized throughout the country for exceeding the national clearance rate for arson investigations. He served as the Assistant Commander in charge of interviews/interrogations, and also acted as the liaison to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, & Firearms Polygraph Division. Lt. DeLeo has conducted several thousand interviews which have resulted in numerous confessions and convictions. His dynamic interrogation skills are highly respected and admired by even the most seasoned Fire/Arson Investigators. He is recognized by the Illinois State Fire Marshal as an Arson Investigator and is a member of the International Association of Arson Investigators. Lt. DeLeo is passionate about his craft and has been teaching interviewing and interrogation classes throughout the country. He has instructed for the Illinois, Nevada and Idaho Chapter's of the I.A.A.I and is currently a faculty member of the College of DuPage in Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

This one day seminar will provide the Fire Investigator interview techniques that are useful, powerful, and successful.

Learn... Through the use of the Cognitive Interview method, 40 to 70% more relevant information will be elicited from a witness or victim.

Learn... Understanding the motive of an arsonist, the investigator will be able to profile the suspect.

Learn... Interrogation techniques that have been proven in obtaining legally acceptable confessions.
